

Please join the Center for Global Development for songs of inspiration and a lunch discussion with:

The Gateway Ambassadors

The Gateway Ambassadors (GA) is a group of Ghanaian youth aged 4-18. The group is internationally known for educating, promoting, and motivating audiences around pertinent issues such as the importance of education, the positive African child, peace/unity on the African continent, morals/ethics, and awareness and united efforts to combat HIV/AIDS. The GA have toured and performed in the U.S. and Africa, including performances for the White House, U.S. Congressional delegations, numerous U.N. delegations, the ECOWAS Heads of State Summit, and the Today Show.

Friday, June 13, 2003

12 noon: Light lunch available

12:30 - 2:00 p.m.: Performance and discussion

With remarks by:

Reverend Canon Gideon Byamugisha

Church/FBO Partnerships Resources Person

World Vision/HOPE Initiative -- Uganda

Peter G. Peterson Conference Center

1750 Massachusetts Avenue NW

(Institute for International Economics)

This event is part of the Center for Global Development's series of Movies, Books, and Conversations: Development Matters and is held in conjunction with World Vision. Founded in 1950, World Vision is a Christian humanitarian organization, serving the world's poorest children and families in nearly 100 countries.

www.cgdev.org <<http://www.cgdev.org/>> www.worldvision.org <<http://www.worldvision.org/>>