

Salud Mesoamérica Initiative: highlighting stories in primary care and complications at birth

1 March, 2018

Ali H. Mokdad, Ph.D.

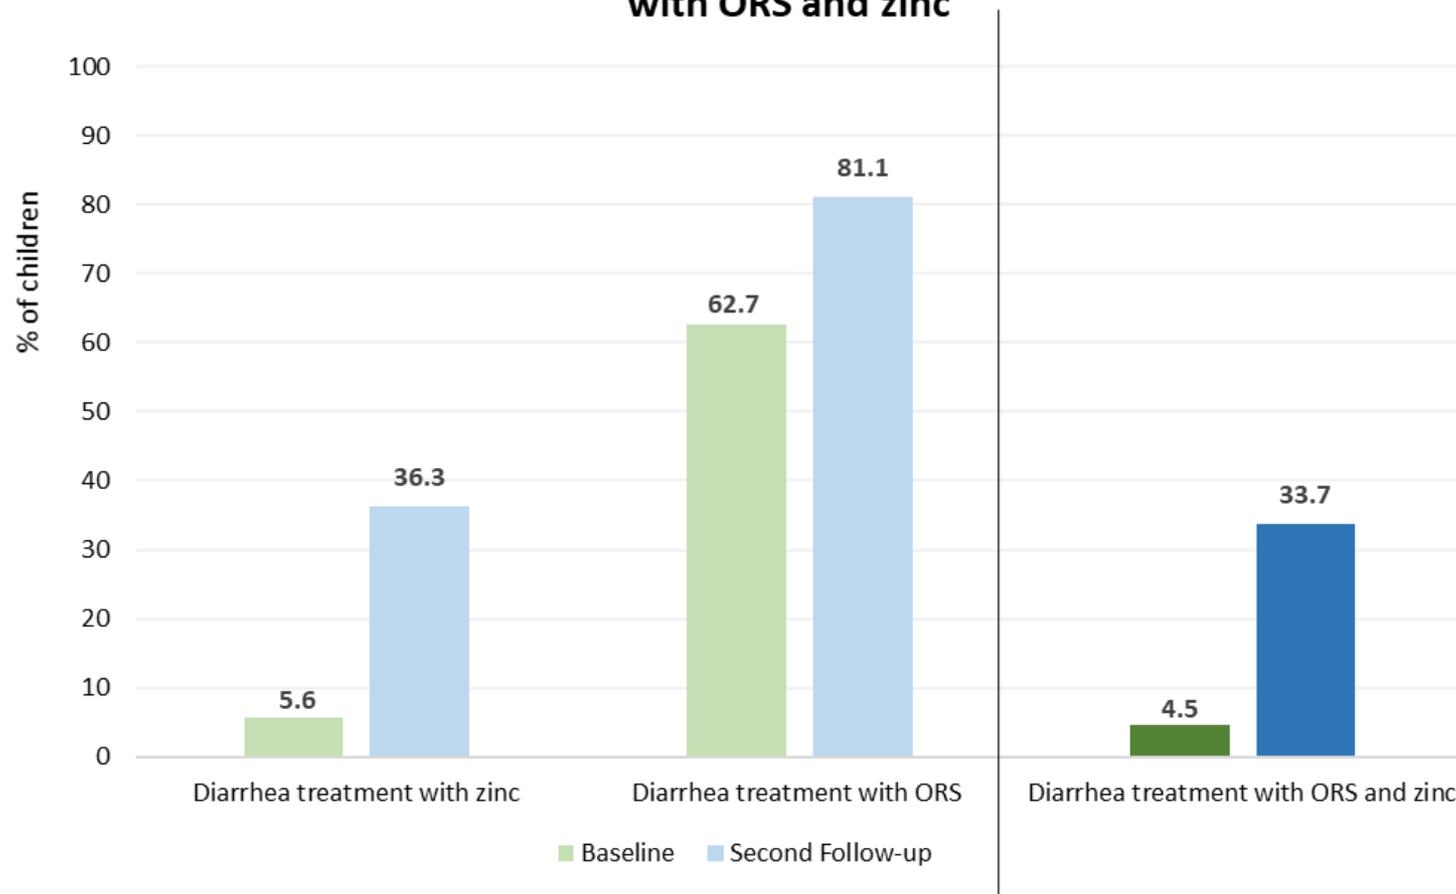

Director, Middle Eastern Initiatives

Professor, Global Health

Primary Care Indicators

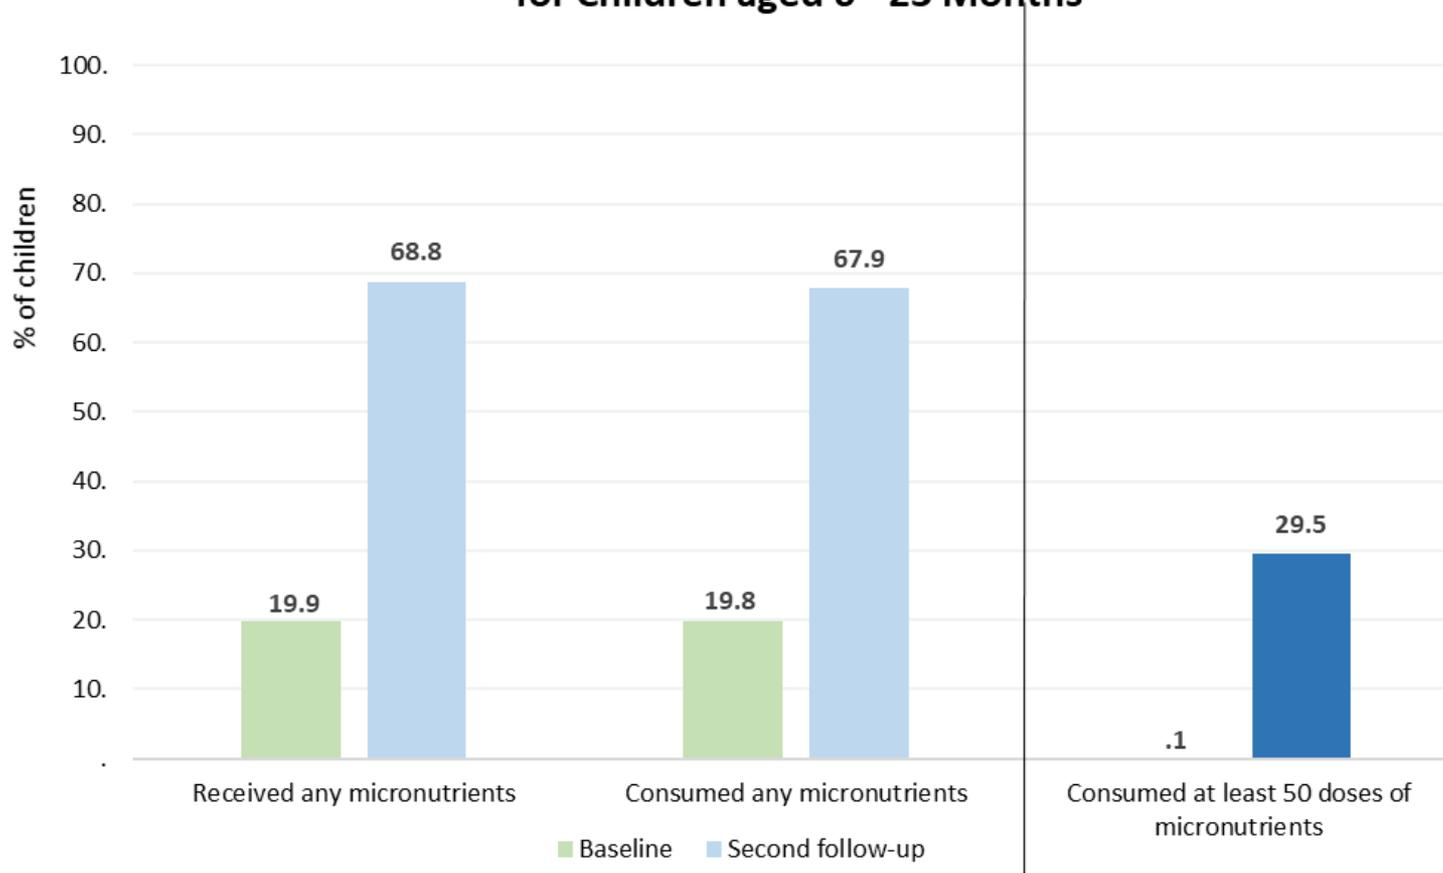

ORS/Zinc consumption in El Salvador (Household survey)

Indicator 5060: Children with diarrhea in last two weeks treated with ORS and zinc

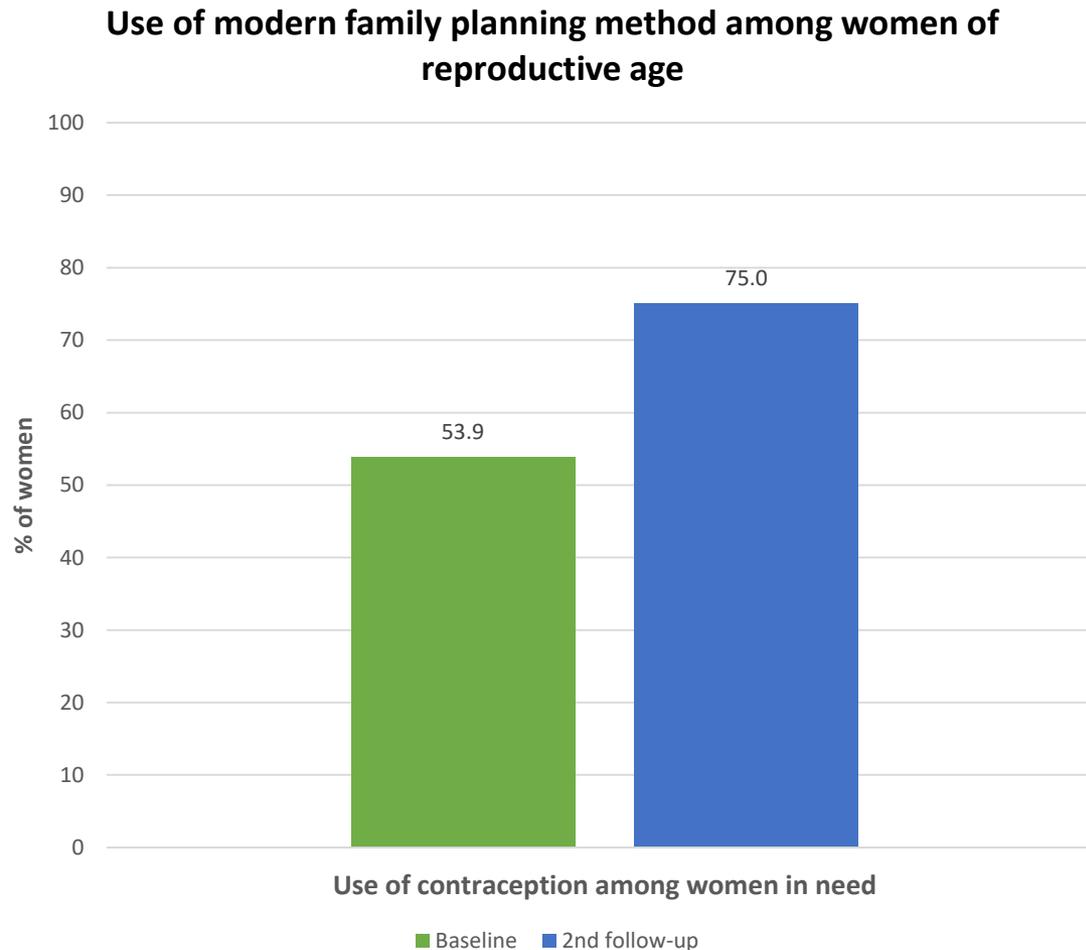

Micronutrient consumption in Honduras (Household survey)

Indicator 5070: Micronutrient Consumption in the past 6 months for Children aged 6 - 23 Months

Family Planning coverage in El Salvador (Household survey)

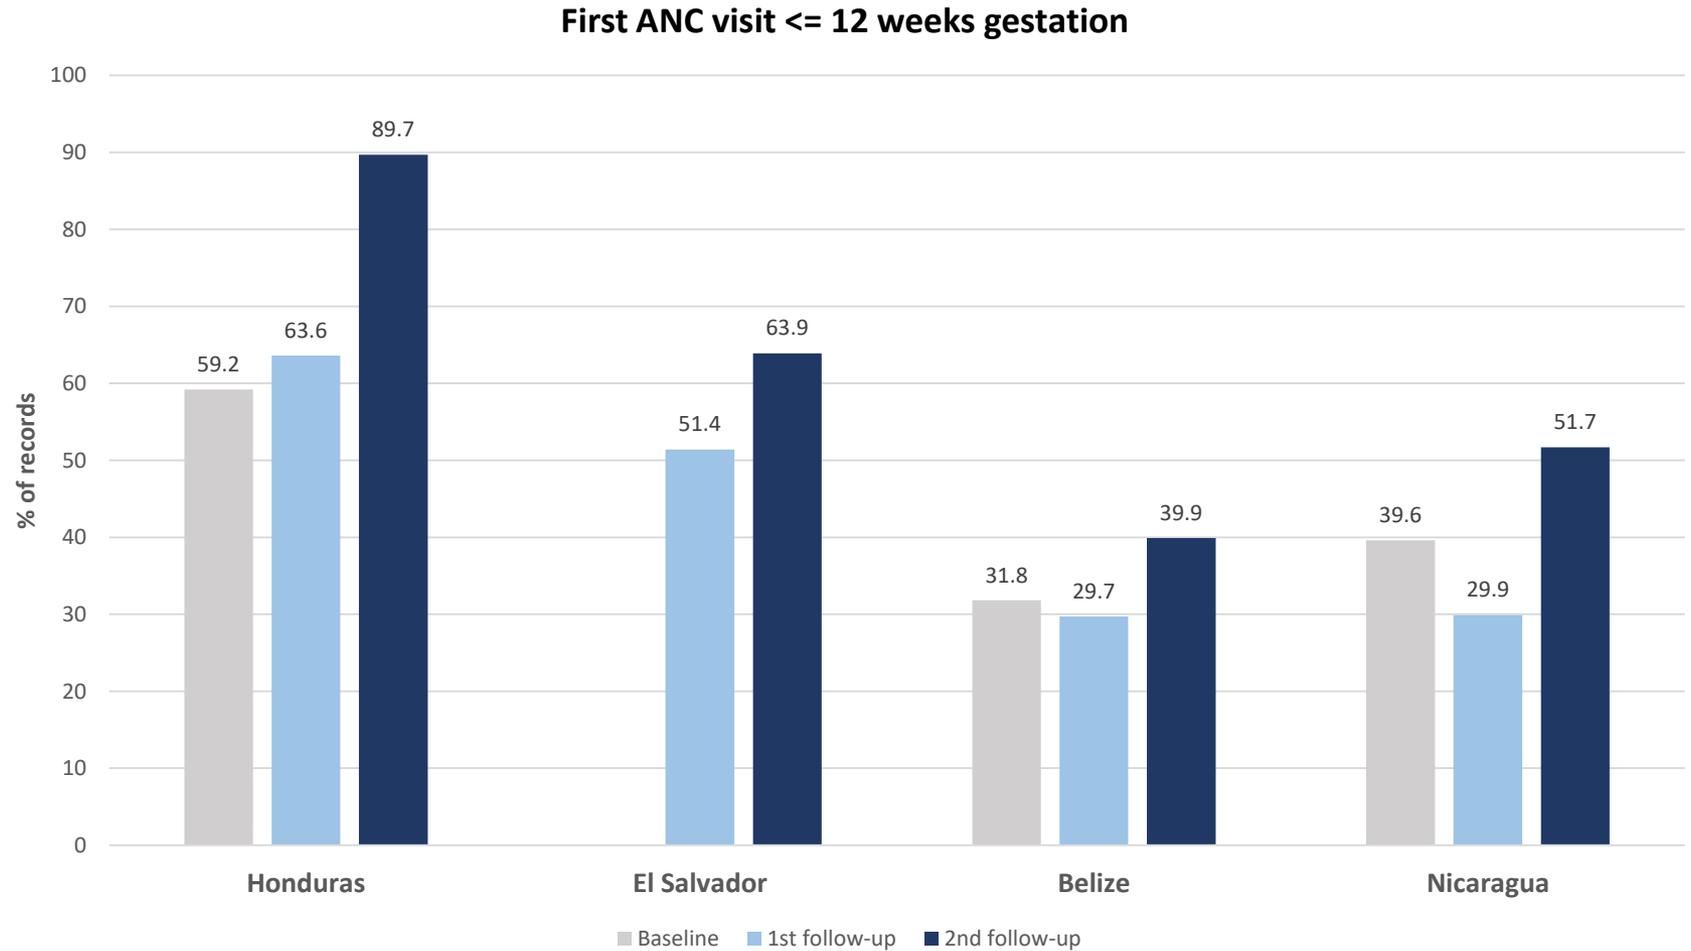

Family Planning post-delivery in Nicaragua (Medical record review)

Family Planning post-delivery in Nicaragua (Medical record review)

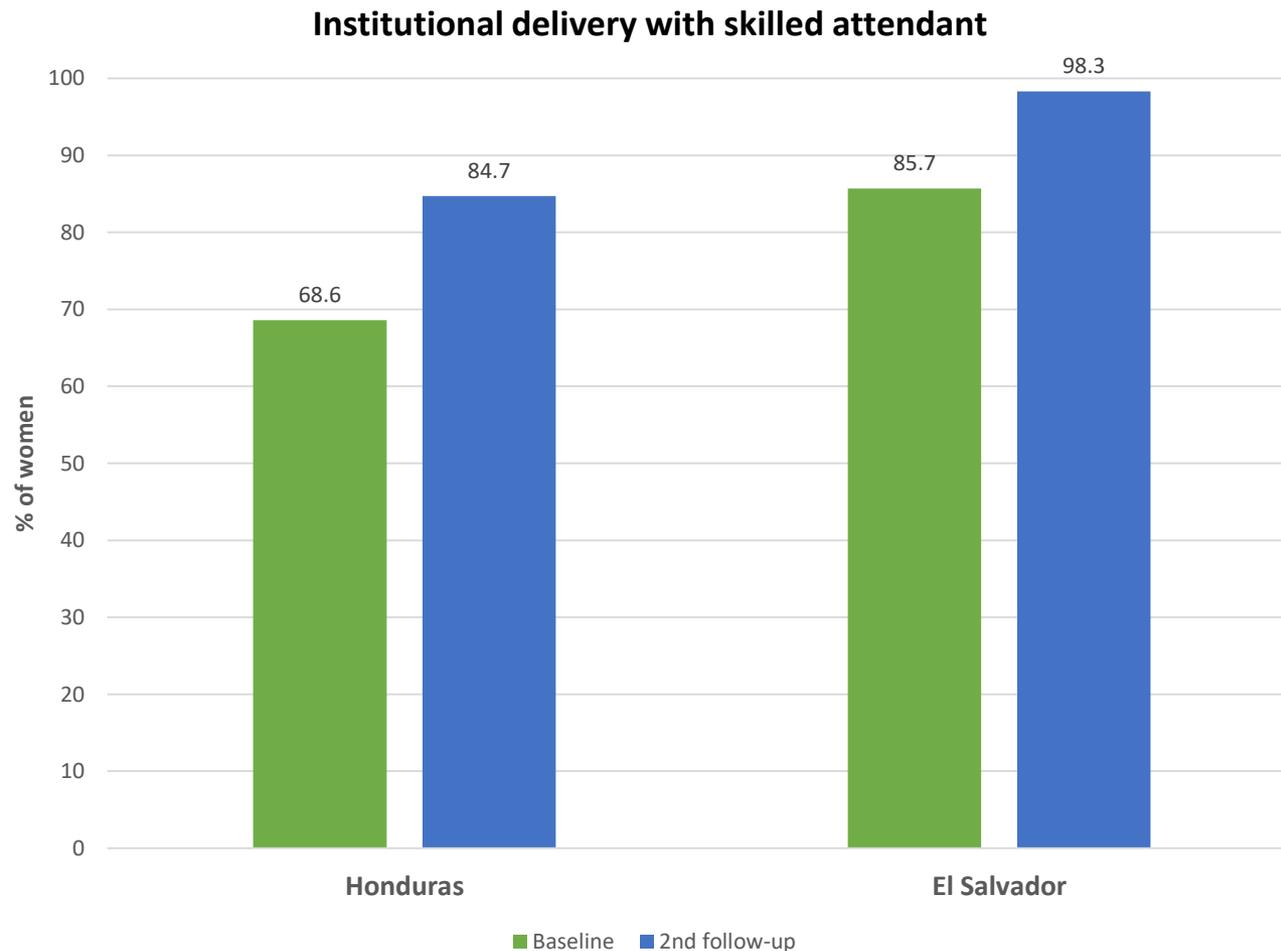

Early catchment of ANC (Medical Record Review)

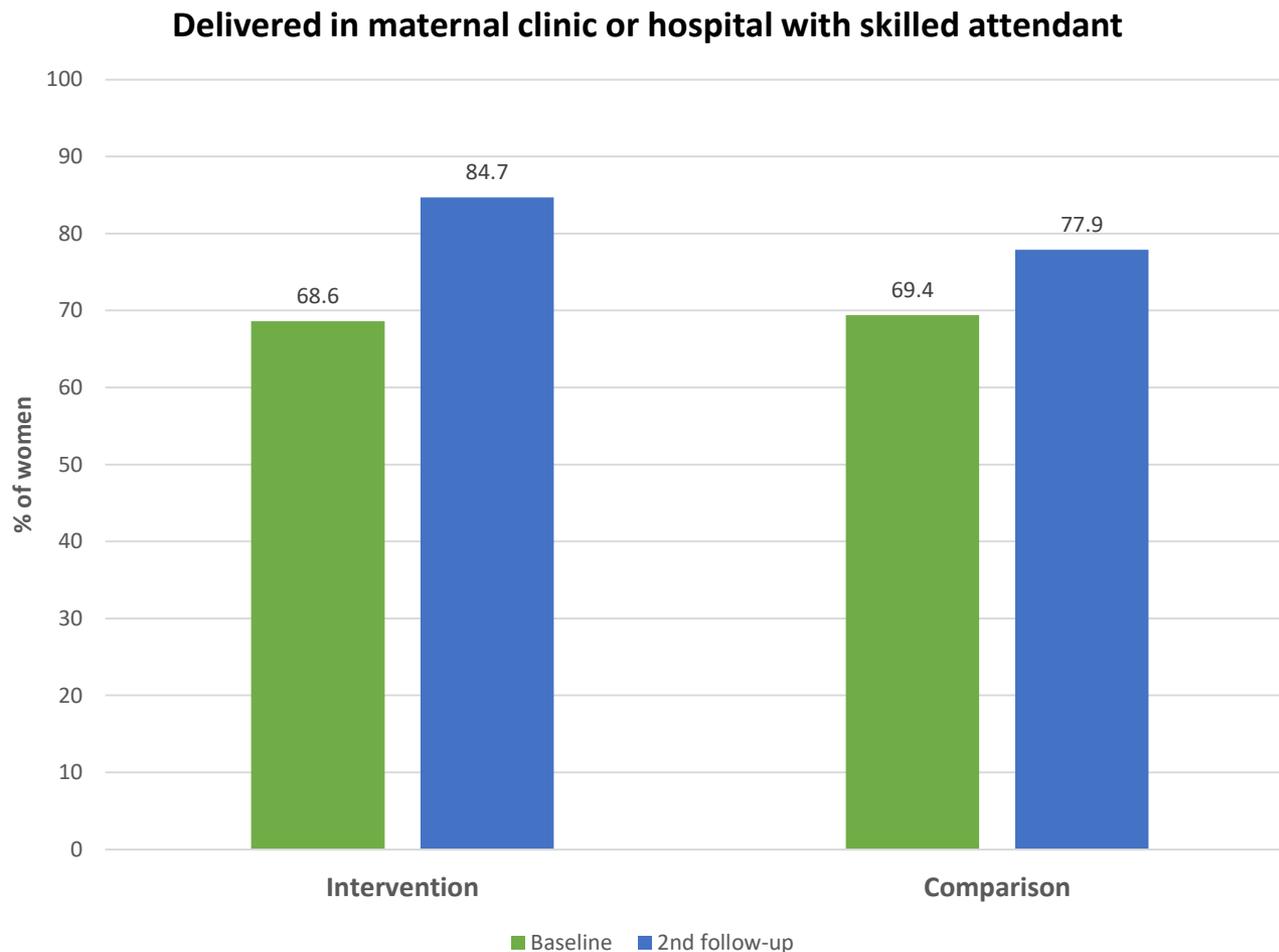

Institutional delivery with skilled attendant

- Denominator:
 - Number of women of reproductive age who have given birth in the last two years
- Formula:
 - El Salvador: Women who reported giving birth in a health facility (public or private) with qualified medical personnel (doctor or professional nurse)
 - Honduras: Women who reported giving birth in a health facility (maternal clinic or hospital) with qualified medical personnel (doctor or professional nurse)

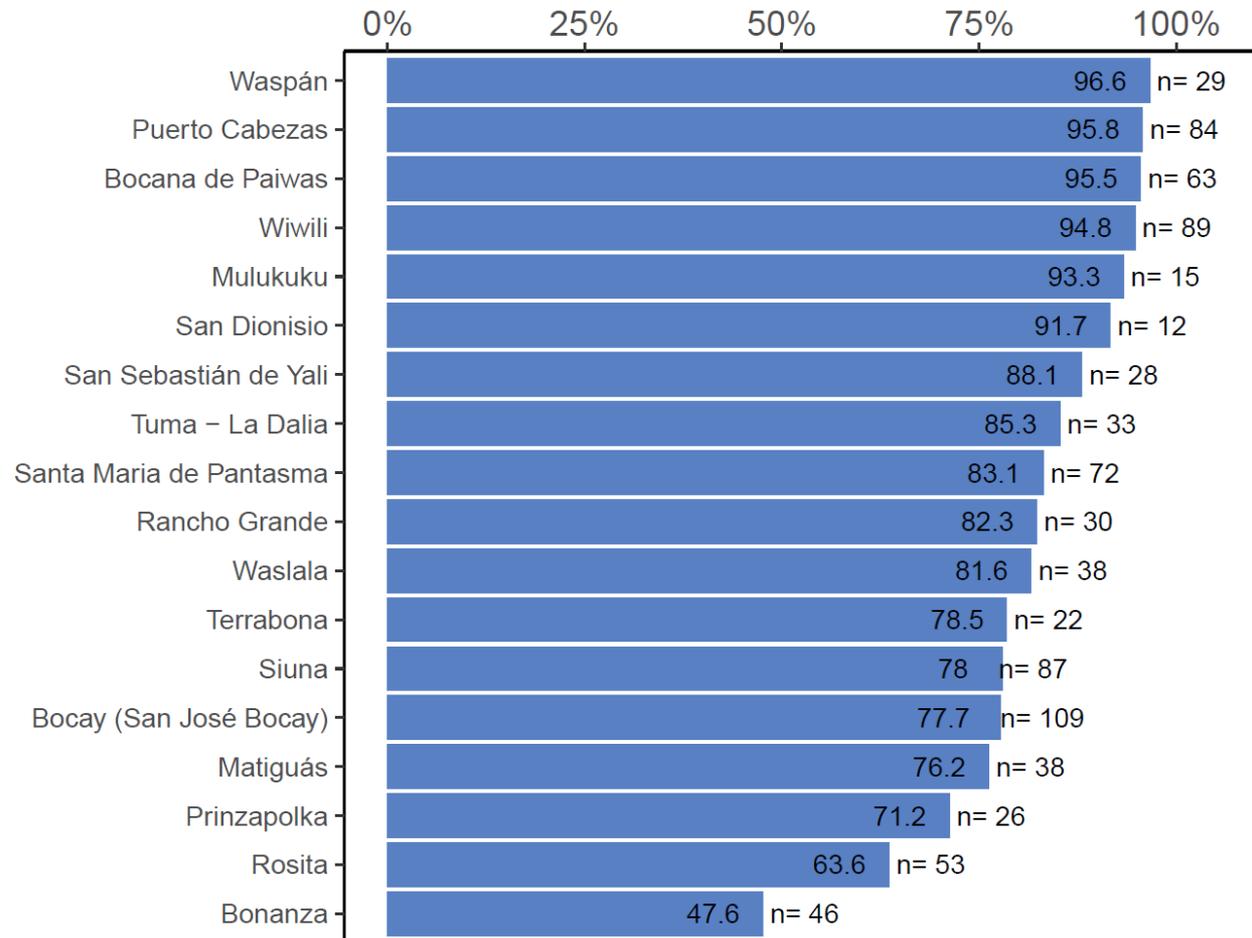

In facility delivery with skilled attendant (Household survey)

Honduras: In facility delivery with skilled attendant (Household survey)

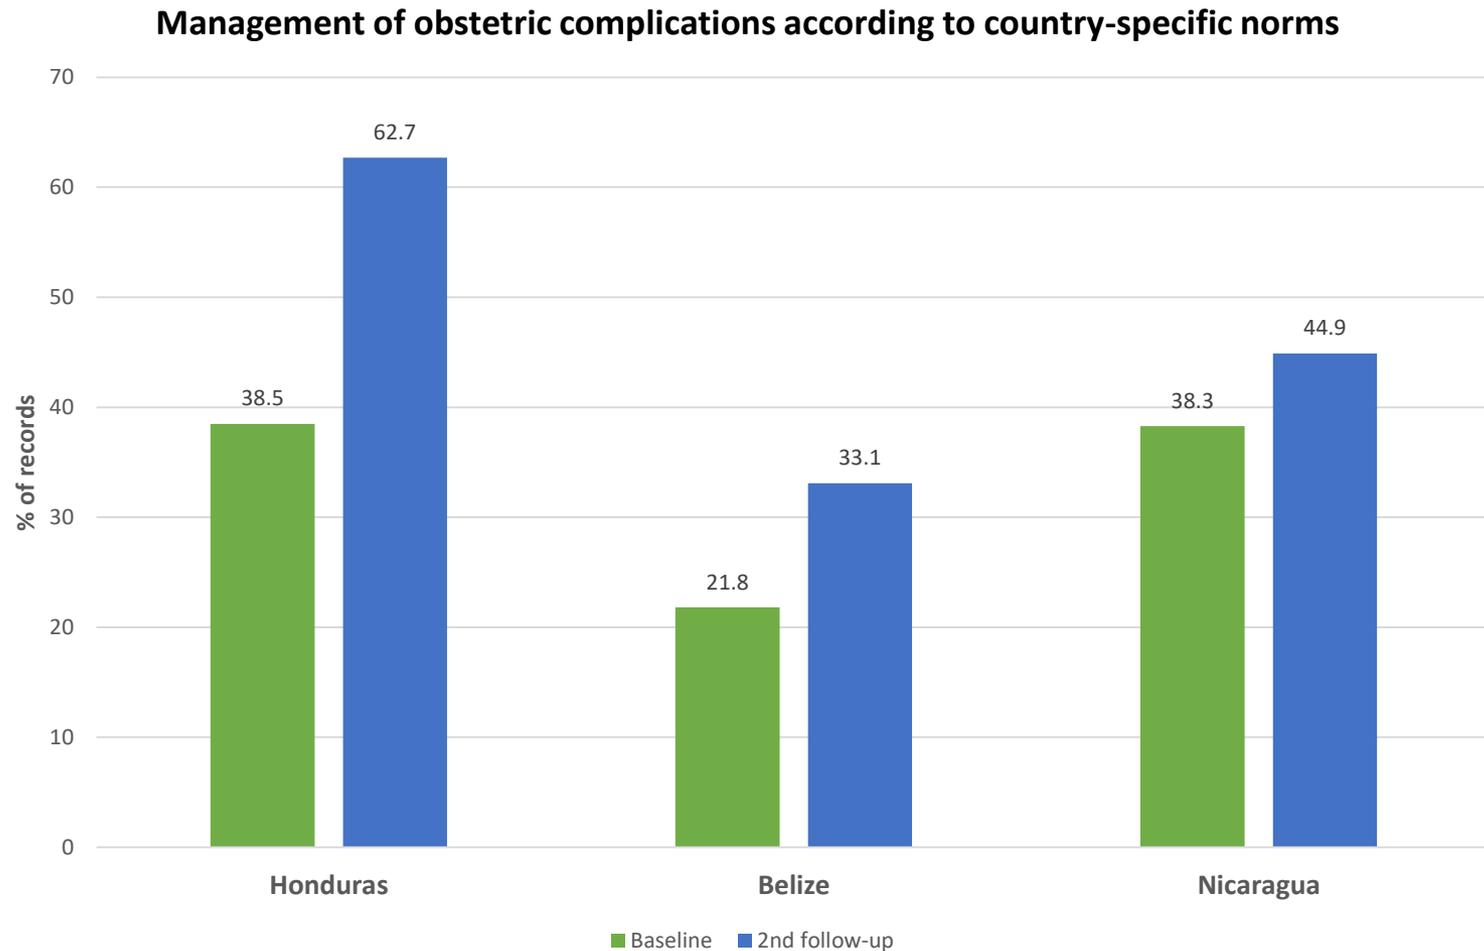

Nicaragua: Postpartum care within 10 days

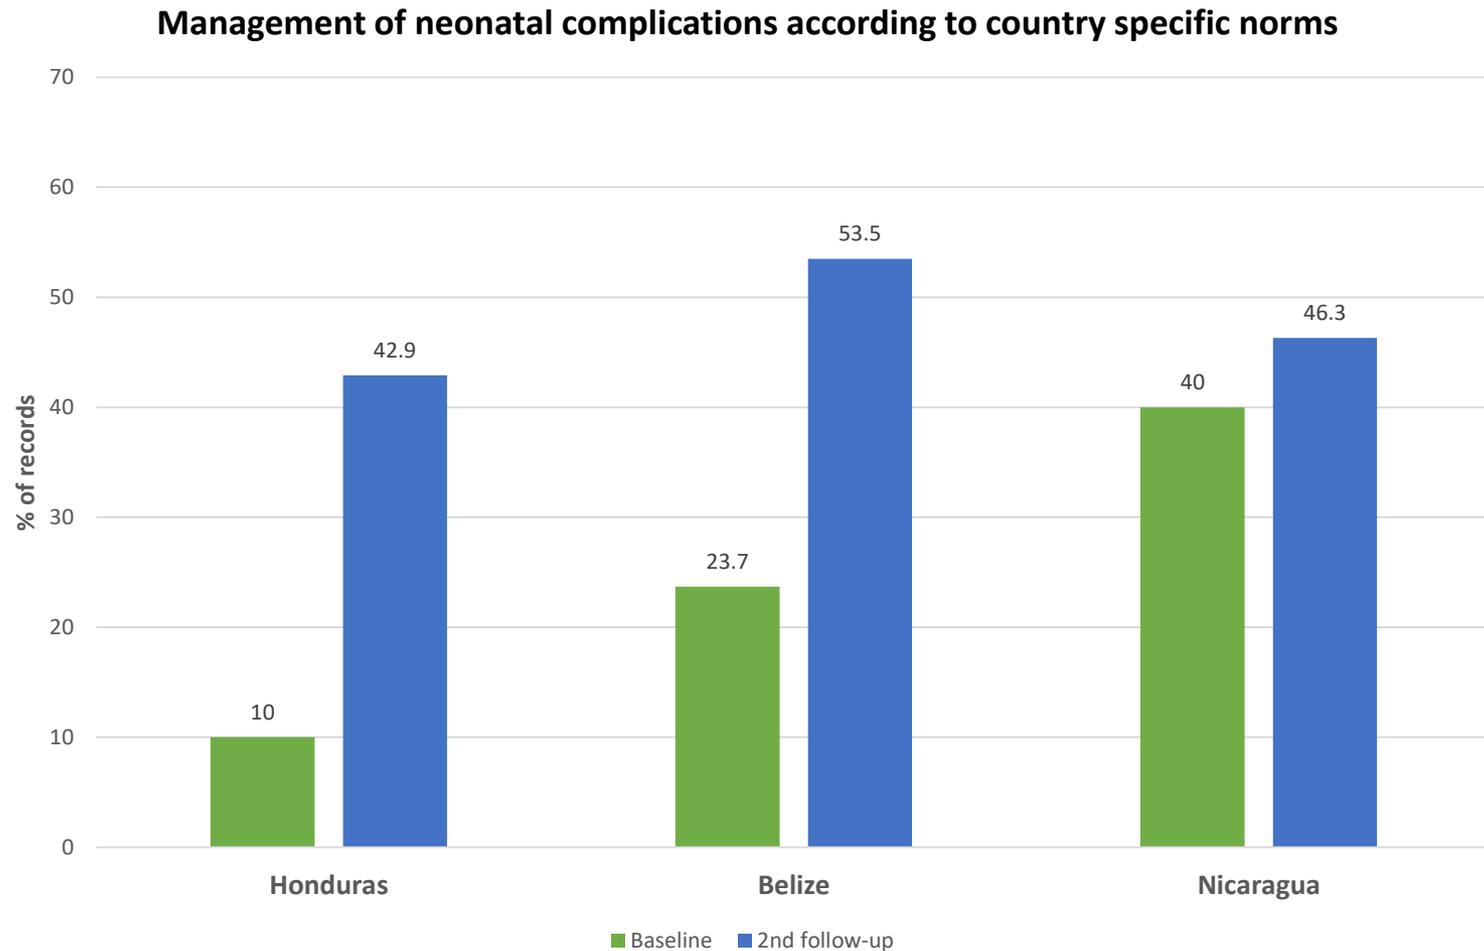

*Intervention areas at second follow-up only; includes check before discharge at in-facility delivery

Management of obstetric and neonatal complications

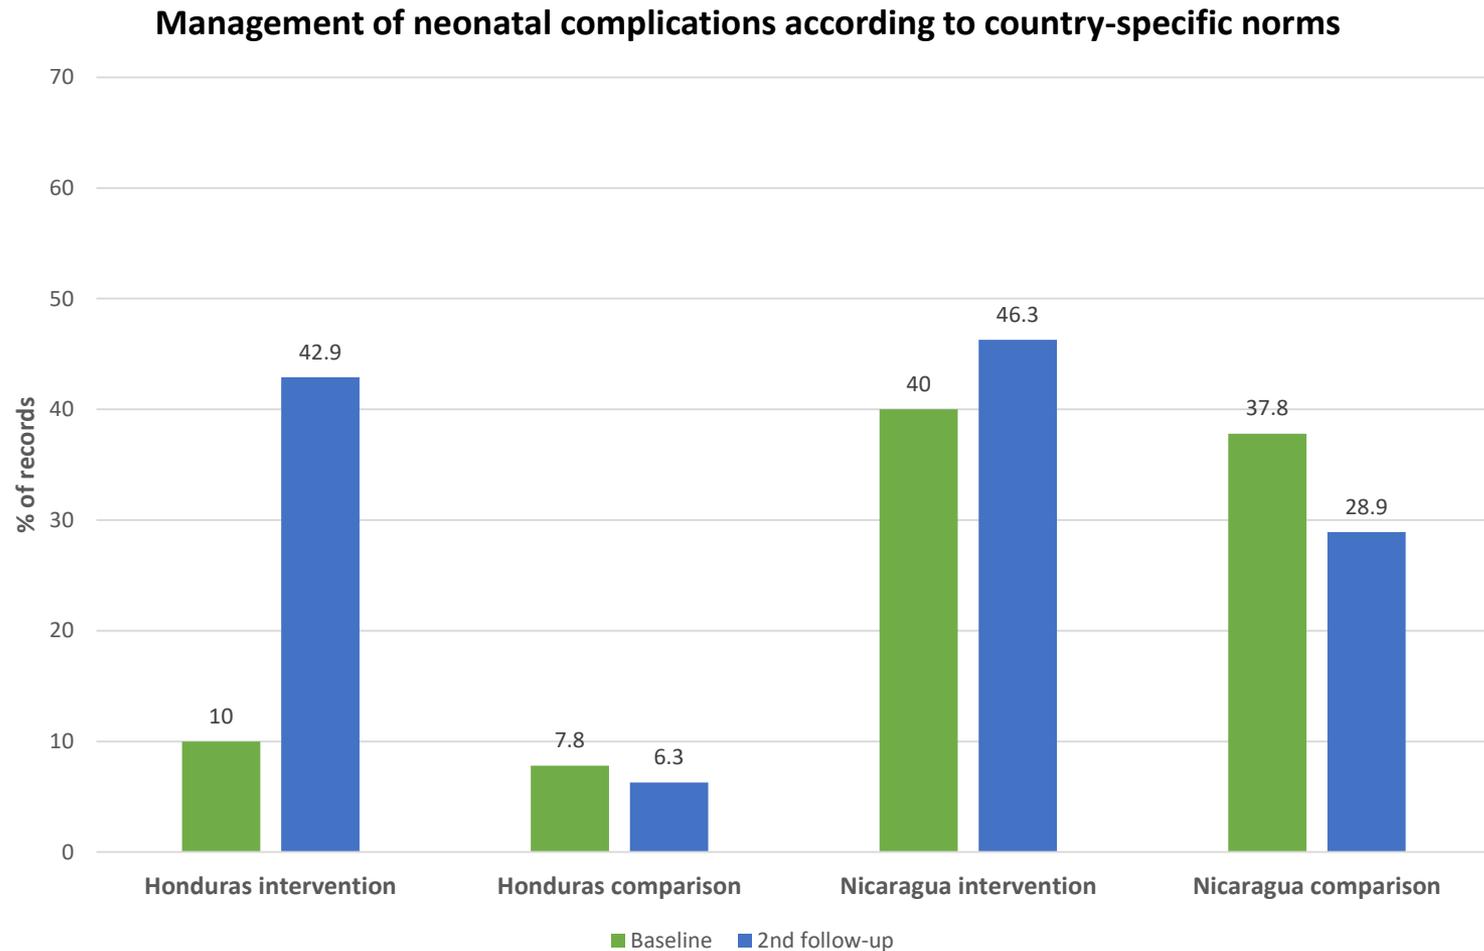

Management of obstetric complications (Medical record review)

Management of neonatal complications (Medical record review)

Management of neonatal complications (Medical record review)

Thank you!

Ali H. Mokdad, PhD
mokdaa@uw.edu